FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

PRIDAY, April 10-6 P. M. Both the regular and the open stock boards as well as the Gold Exchange having previously adopted resolutions to that effect, there was no business transacted at any of them to-day. Morewer, the open board having resolved to suspend or sixty days any of its members dealing in stocks the street on Good Friday, and the er hall of the Stock Exchange being ed, no efforts were made to establish ressing all ardor in that direction, although, as all when business at the boards is suspended or ther than legal holidays, quotations were made for sid and the leading stocks. The public offices, the anks, the private banking houses and a few of the makers' offices were open, but extreme dulness revalled everywhere. The centre of attraction was e discussed and a limited business was informally sacred. The earliest quotation for gold was fork Central at 120%, Rock Island at 94% and Beading at 89%. Atlantic Mail was quoted at 28 a 32 Majod, Erie selling at 71, New York Central at 120% Pacific Mail at 88%, but gold remained steady, being bid for it. In government securities there of the dealers was confined to filling a few orders by all and telegraph. The market for them was, however, steady in tone. Coupon five-twenties of 1862 were nominally quoted at 111% a 111%; issue of 1865, 100% a 180%; new issue of 1865, 107% a 107%, and issue of 1867, splace two or three loans called in, contracts maturved to stand over until to-morrow. There was usiness of importance in the foreign exchange for bills at sixty days. e break of sixty-two and a half per cent in Atmtic Mail, which occurred yesterday, calls attention the risks which the banks incur in loaning on specutive stocks, and admonishes them to be equally areful of the character of their collaterals and the exof their margins. Who knows how soon a similar weak may take place in the high priced railway mares, like New York Central and Hudson River, th are sustained at current quotations only by nes, and if it does how will those who have I money on them with ten or fifteen per cent argin fare? The fall in Atlantic Mail is the most harming sign of the times that Wall street has yet ers have suffered by it remains to be seen; for it is a subject upon which the sufferers will preserve a grave reticence as far as possible. It is, however, sported that the Third Avenue Savings Bank is ong their number, the president of the latter being or having been a director of the Atlantic Mail upany. Rumor had it on the street yesterday the bank in question was involved to a very large amount, but to-day the sum has dwindled to less than a quarter of a million of dollars. Whatever the amount may be, however, the transaction, if it is as represented, is a very scandalous one, for the offity in loaning on any speculative securities, and a rid investigation of the affair by the State authoriis demanded, in order that the depositors may whether they are safe or not in entrusting itution. The banks generally should take warning om this instance to contract their loans on speculive stocks by exacting wider margins than the been accustomed to do, and rejecting all but ities of undoubted value. Bank officers in not s sew instances are known, for reasons best known to themselves, to give an undue preference to cliques sons; and during the recent stringency any loans on stocks were called in without the demand being complied with, from the sheer ma-bility of the borrowers to pay off their loans; and ald a panic overtake the market there would be meat danger of the banks being left the virtual wners of a large amount of the speculative stocks which they have made advances. There is no use for savings banks, above all others, loaning funds on anything but government securities, there is no more difficulty in effecting loans any other kind of stocks or property. The outpublic, too, should be similarly admonished by reakdown to leave the speculative railway and mship shares severely alone. The litigation in Brie and Rock Island has demoralized the stock et, and, with the exception of gover there appears to be very little safety in buying anyming at present. Those interested in the stock of the Rock Island Dailway Company are speculating upon the probable results of the conflict of litigation and legist in the case. The arrest of J. F. Tracy, the president, and Ebenezer Cook, the secretary, was made in Iowa on the 8th inst., on an attachment for contempt borned by the United States Circuit Court, and yesterday Judge Cardozo, of the Supreme Court here, appointed Mr. Hugh Smith receiver of the proceeds of the sale of the 42,000 shares of new stock, but declined to grant the motion to issue attachment officers of the company on the ground that no breach of the injunction granted had been established by the amdavits submitted. With respect to the recent action of the State of Iowa in lavor of the company, he remarked in his opinion hat the statute passed by the Legislature of Iowa Laws of Iowa, 1868, chap. 13,) cannot alone ratify the act of the directors in disposing of the new stock below par, the State of Iowa not having exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation in question. Purther, the certificates of the new stock do not purport to represent stock of the original Rock Island corporation, created by the State of Iowa, but ne to represent stock of the consolidated company, consisting of that corporation and the one med under the laws of Illinois, which gives the natter State quite as much control of the present matter as that of Iowa, and the act of either alone Il therefore not aid the defendants. From this it may be inferred that the Rock Island party will endeavor to get the State of Illinois to pass a similar act to that of Iowa referred to, in which event the mits now pending in the case would be dismissed. The defendants have shown themselves to be unecrupulous enough to resort to any means, legal or Blegal, to accomplish their purposes, speculative and otherwise, and it is evident that they mean to leave no stone unturned in their efforts retain control of the company and defeat the present bull party in the stock. The sympathics of the public are, however, against Some have sought to trace a parallel between this and the great Eric case; but as the latter is a question of monopoly or no monopoly, and public sympathy for this reason is decidedly with he Erie, as distinguished from the Vanderbitt side it must be regarded as wholly different. The public interests are opposed to any one party, however excellent in themselves, having control of the Erie, the w York Central, the Hudson River and the Harbem Companies; and the Chamber of Commerce of this city in its memorial to the Legislature to this oodied the prevailing sentiment on the subject outside of the Vanderbilt clique in Wall street. The latter, as a matter of course, Rel bitterly sowards the rival party and all who do not assume the offensive in their behalf, while the opposite side is equally hostile and determined. The public cares ittle or nothing for the result of this great Eric contest as a stocklobbing operation, but it is of great importance to it that the wholesome competition hitherto existing between the New York Central and the Erie Railway Companies should continue. For one party, and virtually one man, to control the four lines referred to would be to wield a political influence which would override all obstacles to whatever rates of fare and freight the monopoly saw fit to sharge, and past experience has invariably shown shat the Pennsylvania Central and the Baltimore and Ohio Companies are only too willing to advance their fariif whenever the Erle and New York Central are willing to do so. If the following, which we extract from the Bunulo Commercial, is true, it evinces a spirit intraleal to the public interests:-

A is reported that Mr. Vanderbilt has issued erders to the agents of the Central Railroad at Albany to receive no freight consigned to the care of any steamboat or river line in that city. The object is to secure a monopoly of the freighting business during the summer to the Hudson River and Harlem

THE PRIZE RING. Fight in New Jersey for $200 Between Mike

Curry and Jim Cussey-Carry the Victor. Yesterday morning at daybreak quite a determine prize light took place under the Pailsades just above Fort Lee. The principals were Mike Curry, of the city, and Jim Cussey, of South Brooklyn. A bar-Fort Lee. The principals were Mike Curry, of the city, and Jim Cassey, of South Brooklyn. A barroom altereation a few evenings since in the Bowery led to the meeting, and in addition to a desire to vindicate their personal honor the fight was made more interesting by the collection of $200, to be given to the victor. Efforts were at first made to obtain a hall in the city for the girth, but a distinctination on the part of the few owners to whom application was made to let a room for this purpose at last caused them to risk a visit to New Jersey and there settle the matter. A tag was secured, and a little past midnight Thursday, the arrangements being complete, the party left a dock in Brooklyn and within an hour landed at the spot selected. The ring was pisched during the snow storm, and a five o'clock the "trouble" commenced: Cassey was allowed first blood in round one. During the second round he had his from teedli knocked out. The mea fought desperately thirty-one rounds, occupying one hour and a half, during which they punished each other frightfully. In the last round Curry administered a heavy and well directed blow on Cussey's neck, which knocked him Nenseless, and his seconds being mable to revive hier at the call of time the sponge was thrown up and Curry halled the victor. The party hurriedly left the scene of the fight upon its termination, and were landed in small squards at different points in the city to avoid recognition by the police.

NEW JERSEY.

THE CARPENTERS' STRIKE .- In consequence of a refusal on the part of most of the master builders and carpenters of this city to accede to the demand of their employes for an increase of twenty-five cents per diem on their present rate of wages ($3 25), the men have been on a strike since Wednesday. The recusant employers have also resolved not to employ any of the strikers in the event of the movement failing. A mass meeting of the strikers was held at Library Hall last evening for the purpose of taking measures to sustain the movement. After the meeting had been called to order Mr. William M. Shaw, President of the Carpenters and Joiners' Association, was called to the chair. Mr. James Winan was selected as secretary. Addresses of a stirring character were delivered by Messrs. Taylor, Bingham, Valentine and others, all in support of the movement. One of the speakers stated that there was already a disposition on the part of the "bosses" to agree to the demands made. The meeting was largely attended and the proceedings conducted with much unanimity.

The difficulty of extinguishing the above fire has excited much comment. It was remarked yesterday that the fire apparatus was defective, and a deficiency of hose was noticed; but it is now ascertained that one hose company was rendered entirely useless because it was without a wrench. The assistance rendered by the boats of the Brocklyn Ferry Company, too, would have been far more effective that their hose had been available for sudden use. Instead of this, however, it appears that their hose had been available for sudden use. Instead of this, however, it appears that their hose had been available for sudden use and inconvenient places, and much valuable time was consumed before it was brought
